

MNTC also builds homes. Valenzuela Mayor Sherwin Gatchalian (second from right), Manila North Tollways Corp. (MNTC) President Jose "Ping" de Jesus (right) and Gawad Kalinga Executive Director Luis Oquinena (second from left) lead in the ceremonial ribbon cutting during the inauguration of the 2nd Lopez-MNTC GK Village. Also in the photo are MNTC Vice President for Corporate Communications Marlene Ochoa (left) and Dalandanan Barangay Captain Tomas Encarnacion (third from left). MNTC builder concessionaire of the North Luzon Expressway (NLEX) turned over recently 40 newly completed low-cost homes to marginalized families in Barangay Dalandanan, Valenzuela City. The project is considered another milestone for the continuing commitments for social responsibility by the Lopez-led MNTC.